THINGS YOU CAN EXPECT AS A CHAPERONE:

To be given an assignment upon arrival that will insure safety and organization for all.

Girls will be housed in homes / Boys at the church building with access to showers at the parsonage.

Make sure your kids bring sleeping bags and pillows, as well as proper toiletries (including towels).

Exemplifying Christ through your actions, words, and behavior.

To transport other youth, besides the ones you brought, to various activities.

All chaperones need to sign up for an activity and bring proper attire should you get the chance to participate (Due to limited slots being available at knockerball/archery tag, the kids will get the opportunity to fill these slots first, although we still encourage you to sign up for these activities so you can cheer on your kids!).

To honor lights out at midnight.

Knowing your kids whereabouts at all times (even at the church building).

Please encourage the teens to be respectful of their hosts and to take care of the facilities in use.

* We will be having a bonfire- please make sure your teens understand they should wear older outdoor attire if they are concerned about sparks harming their jackets.
